Graduate Student Reception

Thursday, September 28, 2017

6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

At 1154 Boylston Street
(Corner of the Fenway)

A free event! Refreshments and networking begin at 6:00 p.m. and run throughout the evening. Program begins at 6:30 p.m.

What better way to start off the academic year than by spending an evening with graduate students and faculty from other universities who are working in your field? And what better place for such an evening than the MHS?

Enjoy complimentary food and drinks and let our staff take you on a behind-the-scenes tour. Learn more about accessing our unparalleled collections, taking part in our seminars, and applying for fellowships.

All graduate students and faculty members studying American history or related fields are invited to attend. Students who have joined us before are encouraged to return and bring their new colleagues! Have some refreshments, tour the MHS, and meet researchers who might just connect you with your next archive, session panel, or collaborative project.

The reception is free, but RSVP by September 27

Email seminars@masshist.org with your name, affiliation, and whether you are a graduate student or faculty member.
